

Rochester Regional Library
Council
December 2011

CLIC-on-Health is made possible through support from the Rochester Regional Library Council and is funded in part by the New York State Education Department.

CLIC-on-Health is a library and community health information collaborative, bringing together librarians and health organizations to ensure that the people of the greater Rochester area have access to high-quality health information that they need to make wise lifestyle and healthcare choices. CLIC-on-Health is a service of the Rochester Regional Library Council.

We're All About Training

The Rochester Regional Library Council can provide training to groups on how best to use CLIC-on-Health. CLIC-on-Health has modules available on the website for COH training for seniors, and for health professionals. If you are interested in a presentation on CLIC-on-Health, or on how to use the resources available there, please contact Barbara Ciambor at 223-7570, or bciambor@rrlc.org.

FOR SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES

Do you know someone who speaks another language? CLIC-on-Health has a special section for speakers of language other than English. In addition to many sites available in Spanish, CLIC-on-Health has partnered with Miner Library at the U. of R. Medical Center to provide health information for much of the Rochester refugee population, including Karen and Somali.

Whatever language you speak—CLIC-on-Health can help.

You Can Trust CLIC-on-Health

The sites listed on our website were selected by librarians from public, hospital and school libraries, and are easy to understand. You don't have to be a doctor to understand CLIC-on-Health!

For Health Professionals

Are you a local Health Professional that does not have free access to resources through an affiliation with a college, university or hospital? Are you a new graduate of an area college and no longer have access to your school's licensed databases? Consider using the online resources available through CLIC-on-Health. Many of these resources provide access to free, full text clinical and consumer health information.

Still can't find the information you need? Try our Ask a Medical Librarian feature. Your consumer health question will be sent to medical librarians at the Miner Library at the U. of R. Medical Center, or Stabins Medical Center at Rochester General Hospital. You can get to Ask a Medical Librarian from any page on CLIConHealth.

FOR TEENS

Being a teen is hard enough, without having health or medical problems. CLIC-on-Health has lots of sources that will answer the questions that you need to know about.

Looking for the best websites for teen health topics? CLIC-on-Health can help.

FOR SENIORS

Are You a Senior, Looking for Ways to Pay for Your Healthcare?

CLIC-on-Health has links to all types of information about paying for healthcare, specifically for Rochester and New York State residents. CLIC-on-Health also has links to physicians and physician referrals, as well as unbiased information about nursing homes in New York State.
